DANISH WOOD, DANISH-MADE, DANISH DESIGN

koch design zoo is a new brand at items.nu and in general. koch design is rasmus koch, who is a trained designer and cabinetmaker. he has redeveloped his grandfather's animal designs, which were made of available materials during world war 2.

now, the animals are back in a high-quality version, and they have brought new playmates, as rasmus koch has added his own designs of the elephant, the mouse and the little camel. in addition to the flexibility of the animals and the exquisite design finish, koch design zoo is a three-in-one package: made in danish wood, designed in denmark and made in denmark.

koch design zoo comes in a variety of wood types including walnut, oak and maple, while the ostriches are made in a combination of walnut and maple. find koch design zoo under our new category items. where you will also find retail-info. you can also enter by clicking directly on the images in this newsletter.
